

America follow me: Bill Cole Prairieville Louisiana

First thing let me say this: I hate the word FUCK and I hate people that use it in letters like this, but damn it I am mad and upset and it is just the right word for this government and these times. And it just goes to show you that I was educated far beyond my intelligence because the teachers in my days of learning had the courage to discipline me and to make me learn.

The modern day American has evolved into a class of gutless overweight cowards. Why do I accuse you of this?

Well I am 68, I was in Woodstock proving that I was young, free and ready to take on the police, army, or anything the government threw at me in order to suppress me.

I was in Selma with a white sheet ready to fight to my death for a cause I believed in at that time, yes I was ready to take on my government for my cause. Martin King was my opponent and he won that battle, I was wrong in my thinking, but at that time it seemed to be the thing to do. At least I did something.

The Russian showed their ass, and wanted to build a missile site in Cuba and the American of my day united and said "Hell no we want let you do that".

I was in Texas when my President got killed, now I was one mad SOB when they killed Kennedy. I was ready to fight the world and I still aint so sure about that deal.

When I got back from Vietnam I protested against people who were opposed to that war. There are a few of us still left from that dispute, both rednecks and college students that went out into the streets with our fist and lost blood and spent some nights in jail because we were willing to take on our government and each other for a cause we believed in.

Just recently I was in Washington and I looked for a place where I once stood in protest in front of the White House and I be damned, I could not even get close to it, because that area has been secured and off limits to me. If I was not so old I would be reclaiming that land.

I have always been willing to fight for the American way, and I have been wrong more than I have been right in my beliefs, but I have caused change for a better America.

I am amazed at the spineless, cowardly way my younger fellow Americans are letting the government push you around, it is not just that little patch of land in front of the White House, I have been pushed back into my living room and told by my government to shut up, sit down and be still. Do not cause trouble.

Now I am fed up with this shit that is going on in Washington, and I am looking for a leader to follow.

KNOW THIS I DO NOT HAVE THE MONEY OR RESOURCES TO LEAD YOU TO WASHINGTON. But I will walk from Baton Rouge La to DC to meet with any leader, who asks me to help him overthrow this government.

Joe the plumber issued a statement to Obama protesting taxes and the news media made such a big deal out of that. But do you think for one moment that even Lou Dobbs or Jack Cafferty would read this blog on national television. Nor do I think that YOU yes YOU will forward this letter to your friends. We Americans have become so greedy and so worried about our personal gain and what is in this for me that we cannot react in such a manner that will affect the common good for all. Now tell me what is the difference between you as an individual and Wall Street. If I offer to pay all your bills, will you take my money? See what I mean.

You are suppressed by our government, you are afraid to act, you and I will just sit on our asses while DC bails out the banks, pussyfoots around in the killing of Bin Laden, piddles around with Iraq, Iran and North Korea. Our leaders today just poke their noses in foreign affairs. The only objective in Washington that is clear cut to me is the direction our government is leading me. To a form of Socialized government. I will be put in prison if this letter gets forwarded to the White House. Here goes my freedom of speech and print. But I am an American, willing to take that risk. NO, NO not risk let me reword that, I want this letter to make it to MySpace, Facebook, YouTube, Twitter, Google, CNN, ABC, CBS, and the Queen of England so that she will know that some American fight is left in some of us, just as a reminder of what we can do when united. You see when Americans unite with each other we are very capable of overthrowing a government, any government. Remember the damn Alamo.

Even the newspaper, TV and radio reporters are afraid or too stupid to dig out the truth about what is really going on in America, People like Rush and Glen might lose ratings and be branded as traitors if one of them said "Follow me to DC, I will lead you".

Fuck You

To those liberals in DC that want my gun.

To that Wall Street CEO with my government bail out money.

To the teacher that won't teach or can't teach because they cannot maintain order with a good ass whipping in the class room. Fuck you for letting this government suppress you to this point of reeducating our youth.

Every spineless bastard in congress, the senate and house who has forgotten me.

Homeland security, leaders you just get paid, you could care less about me.

FEMA, you still got a mess from Katrina in my back yard, just get your paycheck and forget your duty.

George::::::

Any body and everybody who can do something about our health care situation. For sitting on your lazy ass with your mouth shut.

All of you Illegal immigrants'.

All you people opposed to the ten commandments.

You, for sitting there reading this, with your American blood boiling, agreeing or disagreeing with my every word too gutless to raise a hand or your voice about this crisis that is destroying this great and wonderful nation that God Almighty in heaven has so blessed.

You college students, rise up, speak out, surely you have learned enough to know that what is going on here is just not right and something needs to be done about this crisis. But then our education process teaches you to get from the government you are not suppose to give anything to the government in these days and that is a disgusting shame on our society in which you have become a part of. Lenny Young entered Carleton in the fall of 1961, and for two years was the only African American on the campus. Now that took courage. You were not around then but have you learned what courage is.

And YOU, The Ross Perots, Warren Buffets, The Bill Gates', Lee Iacocca the real Americans with the resources and abilities to organize and lead us little people to victory, General Petraeus, General Norman Swartzcoff where the hell are you when America needs you so badly and why don't you do something to organize my kind against this government. I hate you most of all because the possibility of our success depends on just a little organization on either one of you individuals putting your best foot forward. Historians will write about you, you will become a hero, a martyr and to me you will become a new signature on the Declaration of Independents. And like the original signers you will lose your life or your wealth. That is way to much for a modern American to risk. Right! T Boone Pickens buy me 10 minutes on national television and I will organize a tea party!

So fuck you Cowards, just forward this letter to some real Americans and I will lead.

Fuck you for just sitting on your lazy ass and for neither cussing me out or offering to follow me.

Almighty GOD in heaven, please hear my prayers and bless American again.
